THE SIGNET CLASSICS SHAKESPEARE

Our Signet Classics Shakespeare Series has been extensively revised during the past ten years. We offer the best of everything—unforgettable works edited by eminent Shakespeare scholars, comprehensive notes on the text, an essay on Shakespeare's life and times, source material, critical commentaries, extensive bibliographies, and footnotes. And there's more—The Signet Classics Shakespeare Series is the ONLY paperback series

- To grow with the times by including both historical and thoroughly contemporary critical commentary on such issues as feminist, political, theatrical, and film interpretations of the plays—with recent full-length essays by such respected scholars as Frank Kermode, Carolyn Heilbrun, Michael Goldman, and Linda Bamber.
- To provide more bibliographic listings and more up-to-date and relevant listings of pertinent books and articles in the Suggested Reference Section than the competition offers.
- To feature essays on the Performance or Stage History of each play, written by Sylvan Barnet.
- To offer printed and online Teacher's Guides for seventeen of the most-taught plays.

THE PELICAN SHAKESPEARE

The distinguished Pelican Shakespeare series is now completely revised and repackaged

“Here is an elegant and clear text for either the study or the rehearsal room, notes where you need them, and the distinguished scholarship of the general editors, Stephen Orgel and A. R. Braunmuller, who understand that these are plays for performance as well as great texts for contemplation.”—Patrick Stewart

Each volume features authoritative, reliable texts; high quality introductions and notes; a new, more readable trade paperback size competitively priced; an essay on the theatrical world of Shakespeare and essays on Shakespeare's life and on the selection of texts.

Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe
 ▶ FAUST
Part I
Translated with an Introduction by David Constantine
Preface by A. S. Byatt
 In this first part of Goethe’s great work, the embittered thinker and Mephistopheles enter into their agreement, and soon Faust is living a rejuvenated life and winning the love of the beautiful Gretchen. But in this compelling tragedy of arrogance, unfulfilled desire, and self-delusion, Faust heads inexorably toward an infernal destruction.
 Penguin Classics • 240 pp. • 978-0-14-044901-3 • $11.00

▶ FAUST
Part II
 As his journey continues, Faust follows Mephistopheles through ancient Greek mythology. Deeply smitten by the incomparably beautiful Helen of Troy, Faust marries her, embodying for Goethe his “imaginative longing to join poetically the Romantic medievalism of the Germanic West to the classical genius of the Greeks.”
 Penguin Classics • 560 pp. • 978-0-14-044902-0 • $14.00

Nick Hornby

ARTHUR MILLER

“What keeps his language alive are his hallmark values: heroism, decency, and dignity — qualities easily mocked in our cynical age, yet inarguably authentic in Miller.”—The New Republic

AFTER THE FALL

Often called the most autobiographical of Arthur Miller's plays, After the Fall probes deeply into the psyche of Quentin, a man who ruthlessly revisits his past to explain the catastrophe that is his life. “Endlessly fascinating, emotionally harrowing, and consumingly committed to telling the truth.”—Time.

Penguin Plays • 128 pp. • 978-0-14-048162-4 • $12.00

ALL MY SONS

Introduction by Christopher Bigsby

Winner of the Drama Critics' Award for Best New Play in 1947, All My Sons established Arthur Miller as a leading voice in the American theater and introduced themes that thread through Miller's work as a whole: the relationships between fathers and sons and the conflict between business and personal ethics.

Penguin Classics • 112 pp. • 978-0-14-118546-0 • $12.00

BROKEN GLASS

Set in Brooklyn, this gripping mystery begins when attractive, level-headed Sylvia Gellburg suddenly loses her ability to walk. The only clue to her mysterious ailment lies in her obsession with news accounts from Germany.

THE CRUCIBLE

Introduction by Christopher Bigsby

A classic of the American theater—Arthur Miller's tense, ingeniously multilayered drama of principle and paranoia was first produced in 1953, at a time when America was convulsed by a new epidemic of witch-hunting, The Crucible brilliantly explores the threshold between individual guilt and mass hysteria, personal spite and collective evil. A relentlessly suspenseful and vastly moving play that compels readers to fathom their hearts and consciences in ways that only the greatest theater ever can.

Penguin Classics • 176 pp. • 978-0-14-243733-9 • $13.00

▶ SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY

Introduction and notes by Jerome Loving

Here are Masters's dramatic monologues written in free verse about a fictional Midwestern town called Spoon River. The dead, "sleeping on the hill" in their village cemetery, awaken to tell the truth about their lives, toppling the myth of the moral superiority of small-town life.

Join the PENGUIN GROUP (USA) College Faculty Information Service

Penguin Group (USA) offers course adoption assistance as near as your phone or computer. Over the past few years, the College Faculty Information Service has grown to cover a wide range of fine titles from all Penguin Group (USA) imprints in a continuing effort to offer personalized service to college professors and enhance information provided by our college reps in the field.

HOW THE SERVICE WORKS

Any assistant, associate, adjunct, or full professor who teaches in the United States and regularly adopts paperbacks is invited to join the Penguin Group (USA) College Faculty Information Service. Simply complete and return the questionnaire on the next page, and we'll send you catalogs relevant to your courses and ordering information. Thereafter, you can contact us anytime to discuss appropriate titles and free exam copy choices.

HOW THE PROGRAM WILL HELP YOU

Through CFIS, you'll receive information on new and forthcoming books of interest to you and free exam copies for possible course adoption. Our representative will be glad to review Penguin Group (USA)'s extensive backlist—an invaluable aid in developing new courses, and answer any questions about our titles that you may have. We're available to discuss not only current titles but your ideas on books that you'd like to see Penguin publish. We value your suggestions—they assist us in acquiring books that are most relevant to you as educators.

INTERESTED?

Look through this catalog and note the outstanding books and low prices that have made Penguin Group (USA) the first choice of educators. Then fill out the questionnaire and send it to us. The questionnaire is also available on our website:

<http://us.penguin.com/academic>

It's the first step to a collaborative process a collaborative process that will help you select the best books (at the best prices) for your courses.
