Advance title information for educational distributors

From: Alan Walker

September-October 2006

Conspire with your favorite Penguin author on a good read this fall. "A conventional good read is usually a bad read, a relaxing bath in what we know already. A true good read is surely an act of innovative creation in which we, the readers, become conspirators."
—Malcolm Bradbury

ADOPTION TITLES

LORD OF THE FLIES—William Golding (Perigee September 208 pp. 0-399-50148-7 $9.99)

The perennially bestselling portrait of human nature—with a stunning new cover and re-set, easy-to-read text.

THE OUTSIDERS—S. E. Hinton (Penguin Classics September 160 pp. 0-14-303985-7 $13.00)

Introduction by Jodi Picoult. First published in 1967 when the author was 16, the enduring tale of the Socs and greasers still resonates with its powerful portrait of friendship.

THE BIBLE With the Apocrypha (Penguin Classics September 2,000 pp. 0-14-144151-8 $16.00)

King James Version. Edited with an Introduction and Notes by David Norton. Scrupulously collating the established text with the translators' original manuscripts, the editor presents the new authoritative edition.

INFERNO The Divine Comedy, Volume 1 —Dante (Penguin Classics September 560 pp. 0-14-044895-0 $16.00)

Translated and Edited by Robin Kirkpatrick. "The first [version] to bring together poetry and scholarship in the very body of the translation—a deeply informed version...that is also a pleasure to read."
—David Wallace, University of Pennsylvania.
Original Italian on facing pages.

SELECTED FABLES—Jean de la Fontaine (Penguin Classics September 304 pp. 0-14-045524-8 $14.00)

Translated by James Michie. Introduction by Geoffrey Grigson. Drawings by J. J. Grandville. Michie's earthy translations capture the nimble comedy and jaunty wisdom of Fontaine's originals.
